The Best Things

The sweetest songs are those
That few men ever hear;
And no man ever sings.

The clearest skies are those
That far off appear;
To the birds of strongest wings.

The deepest loves are those
That no one can see;
With his best flowing.

My River.

Sing out, sing out, O river, glad and new,
Sing out, ring out, the wooden gongs through,

Sing, sing, and bring from meadows, morning sweet,

The slippery shadows on your silver sea;

Your pretty shapes glitter in the sun;

And gently now the waves, all as one.

Sing louder, river, for the moon is high
And swiftly sped the freighted barges by;

And dally now the waves as they sing;

"Thid which will bear away we never sing."

O river, watching now our many mts.,
Your flowing current seeks the yielding side;

And heavily now the waves as they feel;

The long waves lapsing underneath the land;

Sing, sing, O river, singing slow.

The sea is dark—the darkness fills—singing low.

—Beleno Barnes Boteler, in Scriber's

Variety.

A family of original exclamation—Barn'sems.
A bad habit to get into—A coat that is not paid for.

The best method of constructing a dam—Without an "in."

Which are the four most culpable letters in the alphabet?—O, H. C. T. (obesity).

How Patrick proposes to get over his single blessedness—By proposing to Bridie it.

It is a lesson for the hypochondriac to watch the effects of a man with the toothache to laugh.

What is that which every one can divide, but no one can see where it has been divided?—Water.

Naturalists claim for the error that it is one of the bravest of birds, because it never shows the white feather.

Why do women talk less in February than in any other month? Because it is the shortest month in the year.

Would be contributor—"I wish you would tell me something to write about." Editor: "Well! Right about 'em."

A yankee wanted the Bridge of Sighs pointed out to him, and then offered to let America had several bridges twice the size.

A histrionic individual, who had heard a good deal about the "theater of war," suggested that the back seats must be very desirable.

There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any business; and the other is that they haven't any mind.

"I am indeed, very much afraid of lightning," said a pretty lady. "And well you may be," replied a despairing lover, "when your heart is made of steel."
